Virtual Influencer

Urvi is a Ultra Realistic Virtual Influencer created by Prismart Productions . She is a 22-year-old fashion model and social media personality who has quickly amassed a large following online. Urvi is known for her stylish looks and her positive attitude.

There are several reasons why virtual influencers are becoming popular. First, they are always available to their fans. They can post content 24/7, without the need for sleep or breaks. Second, they are immune to controversy. They can't be caught in a scandal or say something offensive. Third, they are perfect brand ambassadors. They can be styled and posed however the brand wants, and they will never age or get tired.
